Welcome to Dubrovnik!

Dear friends and colleagues!

We wish you a warm welcome to Dubrovnik where the first Plenary session of Croatian IHRA Presidency will be held.

Terezija Gras and Sara Lustig, the Co-Chairs of the Croatian IHRA Presidency.

Entry into Croatia

All delegates must possess valid travel documents and, where necessary, a visa for entry into Croatia. Please ensure that you apply for your visa beforehand.

From January 1, 2023, the Republic of Croatia fully applies the Schengen regime. This means that border controls have been abolished at all internal land and sea borders of the Republic of Croatia, i.e. border controls are no longer carried out at the borders with the Republic of Slovenia, Hungary and the Italian Republic.

From March 26, 2023, border control will no longer apply even at airports, on flights within the Schengen area.

Dubrovnik

It is possible to arrive either by going to capital Zagreb and then transferring on a flight to Dubrovnik or by flying directly to Dubrovnik airport.

- Bus
- Taxi

Getting from the airport to the Valamar Hotels:

The airport is approximately 30 minutes (22km) away from the centre of Dubrovnik. In the summer months, it might take longer, due to traffic congestion.

Official shuttle bus offers transfer from the airport to the main bus station in Dubrovnik. Busses depart after every landed flight. Upon arrival to the main bus station in Dubrovnik (picture 1), you can take a taxi to the Valamar Hotels at Babin Kuk (picture 2). The drive from the main bus station to the Valamar Hotels is approximately 15 minutes.
